Sir:

This is a response to the Office Communication mailed April 22 2005, and is made within the stipulated one month allowable response period. (May 22 is a Sunday and therefore a dies-non; today May 23 is the next business day.)

The applicant sincerely apologizes for his unintentional error in the response dated December 9th 2004 to an earlier PTO office action, in which - among other amendments - he renumbered the three last claims with a letter suffix.

The applicant respectfully requests that this renumbering of the last three claims be withdrawn and not entered.

Enclosed is a copy of all the annotated claims, plus a clean copy of all the claims without annotations, both with the letter-suffix renumbering of the last claims omitted, and the relevant claim designations adjusted accordingly. The reference numbers of claims dependent on the last three claims have been adjusted to reflect the current numbers.

The enclosed certificate of mailing lists the documents that are part of this response.

In case any additional funds may be needed now or later, please debit my patent office deposit account number 501 334.

Sincerely,

Mitja Victor Hinderks.
